7. PAYMENT AND ALLOCATION OF AID

The aid granted to the participants of the mobility program Erasmus + is designed to partially cover the expenses incurred by them during their stay abroad.

Aid funds from the European Union under this call include:

1. An aid to cover subsistence expenses: This amount is set according to the country of destination and length of stay. The aid is divided by groups of countries, according to the approximate cost of living. Spain is included in Group 2 and mobilities contribution to this country is 850 EUR a month for students.

2. an aid to help cover travel expenses. The amount is calculated as a function of distance bands.

The distance should be calculated between the city of origin and University City University of destination, using the distance calculator European Union (http://ec.europa.eu/programmes/erasmus-plus/tools/distance_en.htm). In the case of UMMTO, the allocated travel fund per participant is 275 €.

The maximum funding period for each type of mobility will be 5 months.

80 % of the total funding will be paid by bank transfer to the students' bank account in Spain. Students are advised to open a bank account in Huelva as soon as possible after arrival in order to minimize the possibility of delay in payment due to bank related issues. Students should arrive in Huelva with sufficient funds to cover accommodation and living costs for a 4 week period.

The remaining 20% of the funding will be transferred during the last month of the mobility period, before departure, if participants have stayed the full 5 month period and complied with the obligations listed in this Call.

Provisions for Participants with special needs/disadvantaged backgrounds:

Participants who can provide official documentation showing special needs/disadvantaged backgrounds should declare this fact and include the corresponding documents when submitting their applications. If successful in obtaining an Erasmus mobility place in this Call, they should contact the International Office of the UHU as early as possible so that extra funding can be applied for on their behalf and so as to inform of the UHU might best facilitate their needs during the mobility period.
