MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING between

GEORGE EMIL PALADE UNIVERSITY OF MEDICINE, PHARMACY, SCIENCE, AND TECHNOLOGY OF TARGU MURES, ROMANIA

and

MOULOUD MAMMERI UNIVERSITY OF TIZI-OUZOU, PEOPLE'S DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC OF ALGERIA

Considering the need to support and promote intellectual cooperation and international exchange of knowledge between universities;

Recalling the continuous and auspicious collaboration between the two universities, materialized in teaching and student exchanges as well as scientific advancement;

Reaffirming the mutual desire to promote the universities' missions for education, research, and innovation;

Emphasizing the goal to provide a variety of collaborative opportunities for students as well as the academic and administrative staff, and

Committing to support and further develop good relations between the two universities

Prof. Dr. Leonard Azamfirei, Rector of George Emil Palade University of Medicine, Pharmacy, Science and Technology of Targu Mures, Romania and Prof. Dr. Ahmed Bouda, Rector of Mouloud Mammeri University of Tizi-Ouzou, People's Democratic Republic of Algeria, agree to the following framework of academic and scientific cooperation:

Article 1

Under the present MoU, each institution agrees to cooperate, for the mutual benefit, on, but not limited at, the following activities:

- A) Supporting and encouraging cooperation and contacts between specific departments and institutes within their structure;

- B) Facilitating the visit and short-term or long-term exchanges of the academic staff, medical experts, scientific staff, and students, for lectures, conferences, colloquia, symposia, and other academic activities;
- C) Facilitating the exchange of pedagogical methods and resources;
- D) Encouraging institutional development and the continuous education of the staff of both universities;
- E) Promoting joint research activities and common scientific projects with national, European or international funding;
- F) Information exchange on scientific activities, fields of interest, and also on funding opportunities;
- G) Encouraging technology transfer and the exchange of scientific research outcomes;
- H) Organizing common scientific events, as well as scientific publications in the fields of interest to both universities;
- I) Supporting cultural exchanges and activities, as well as sport events;
- J) Collaborating within the UNESCO Chair.

Article 2

The present Memorandum shall not be construed as creating any financial obligations between the two parties, but as statement of intent to foster mutually beneficial cooperation.

The specific fields and forms of cooperation, as well as other possible forms of cooperation not specified above may be identified and agreed upon separately on each specific case, depending on the professional priorities and financial resources of the universities. Details of these forms of cooperation, including coordinators, description of exchange activities, financial conditions, will be agreed upon in separate Agreement or Annex.

Article 3

All activities will be based on the principles of equality, general reciprocity, and mutual benefit.

Article 4

The initiatives and forms of cooperation in this agreement will be realized under the condition that both partners can find the necessary financial resources. The universities will explore ways and means to finance joint projects through government funding sources or other public and international organizations funding.

Article 5

The Memorandum of Understanding will become effective from the date of the signatures by the representatives of both universities and it will be valid for five years. The terms of the Memorandum may be amended at any time and are subject to mutual written agreement by both parties. The Memorandum can be terminated by either of the parties with six months' written notice.

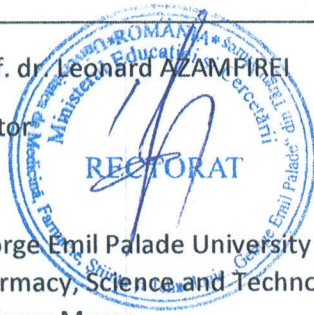

The present agreement is signed in two original documents, both written in English and both equally authentic.
